LUTHERAN CONFERENCE

Proceedings of Yesterday's Session at the German Church

After a brief devotion the Chairman of the Conference called the meeting to order. The election of officers was deferred until the afternoon session.

A paper by Rev. C. F. W. Allwardt had been begun at a former session. The conclusion of this was taken up. If a congregation desires to retain the youth in the Church it must see to it that their young are, as much as possible, kept out of bad company; that suitable entertainment is provided; that their homes be made attractive and inviting; that the Church services be made profitable, edifying and attractive. More than that, the Pastor must so prepare his sermon that the young hear it with profit. It must be in their language and simple. The Pastor must watch the attendance at Church, the attendance upon Holy Communion, and at the proper time administer warning and exhortation if the conditions require that.

These thoughts served as a basis for the discussion, and many pertinent remarks were made by the members of Conference.

At 1:30 p. m. Conference met again. The following officers were elected—

President—Rev. C. F. W. Allwardt, Hamilton, O.

Secretary—Rev. J. C. Einfeldt, Suoman, Ind.

Treasurer—Rev. C. Grant, Trenton, O.

Rev. J. E. Allbrecht, Weisburg, Ind., then presented a paper on "Why Should Sponsors be Orthodox?" Sponsors are those persons who at the baptism of an infant speak for that infant. While their faith or unbelief cannot invalidate that baptism, we yet desire to have believers that hold the true Confession of Faith for Sponsors. It is quite natural that in so solemn a rite one prefers to have all concerned to be united in faith and in conviction. When in the rite prayer is offered it should be the prayer of all, spoken as of one mind. If, however, the Sponsors represent a variety of denominations and a variety of views on baptism, this is made impossible. Usually Sponsors obligate themselves to use their endeavors that the child may be trained up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. It can readily be seen that if these Sponsors are to redeem their pledge faithfully they should be of one mind, also with the parents and Pastor. First of all, the Sponsors represent the parents. And parents should see to it that their purposes may be fully carried out in case their children must be cared for by strangers.

The discussion will be concluded tonight. Services tonight at 7 o'clock, with sermons by Revs. J. Siermans and H. Schmidt.

The Hamilton Conference is only a small part of the Evangelical Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio and Adjacent States. This Synod was organized in the state of Ohio in 1818, and will therefore celebrate its centennial jubilee in a few years.

Among the fifty or more Lutheran bodies in the United States, this Synod has prospered greatly. For many years the work was confined to the state of Ohio and a few adjacent states; but since about 1870 the work has been expanded until now this Synod is working in almost every state and territory. About ten months ago work was begun in Canada and in a short time ten men were sent there and more are to follow.

The Synod is divided into ten District Synods, viz: eight German and two English Districts. The Hamilton Conference is a part of the Western District Synod. Each District is divided into Conferences which hold two two-day sessions a year.

The Joint Synod has 550 Pastors, 100,000 communicants, 5 educational institutions, 4 institutions of mercy, 100 parochial school teachers, and many Pastors conduct such schools.

The Joint Synod meets every two years for a ten days meeting. Each District meets annually for a one-week meeting.

Rev. M. C. Hecht is the President of the Western District, but the other District officers belong to other Districts.

BARGAIN BULLETIN

1852 HUNT'S 1906

$1.25 for 85c—That represents the saving on the brown and white fringed Bedspreads. Serviceable for winter use, perfect in every way, but less than a dozen left after our busy selling, hence the price cut.

$1 to $2 for 98c—Madras Curtains in several combinations. Very few and only one of a kind, that's the price reason.

$2 for $1.69—Women's Silk Umbrellas, bought in big quantity to secure price concession. Lively selling, not many left. Don't delay.

$1 for $1—Black and white elbow length Silk Gloves. Came to us on a close margin, go to you the same way.

$12 for $7—Handsomely tailored Covert Coats, black, down stock. $8 Coats $5.90; same reason.

$5 for $3—Long Silk Kimonos, Jap patterns, several make $3½ their ticket-of-leave. Big bargains. Short Silk Kimonos $2¼ instead of $3½.

$1 for 39c—Satin, silk back, colors; if black or white would have sold promptly. Good for linings, slips and fancy work. Splendid quality.

$1.25 for 75c—Mohairs, don't know why they fail to move. Splendid values, serviceable colors, good patterns.

$5 for $1—Women's Skirts of dark gray, heavy kersey. Some in the lot sell for $1. Will give splendid service for working skirts. If you need a low priced skirt to save better ones, this is your chance.

Remnants—Silks of all sorts at almost any price, in 1½ to 7 yard lengths. Worth seeing.

The Hon. LESLIE M. SHAW, Secretary of the Treasury, is one of the most forceful speakers in the country. His presence in this city October 5th will undoubtedly attract a large crowd, as it isn't every place that can secure a visit from a Cabinet Officer—especially one who has shown such capacity as Mr. Shaw to manage the finances of $0,000,000 people and to care for Uncle Sam's billions of wealth.

THEY'RE awfully "pertikular" down at Louisville. The City Council refused to pay a printer's bill because one of the Councilmen owned a few shares of stock in the Printing Company.

It pays to be the "poor blind man." Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM MINES of Sterling, Ill., who for the last few years have made annual trips through the country begging, both being almost blind, are said to be worth close to $40,000.

GOVERNOR W. O. BRADLEY is engaged in a literary work which ought to prove interesting, especially in Kentucky. He is preparing to publish in book form a collection of 365 stories which have been garnered during his long public career. It will be noticed that the collection comprises a story for each day of the year. Governor BRADLEY has a state-wide reputation as a story teller and relator of apt anecdote.

WHOLE ARMY TO BE READY

Practical Abdication of the Cuban Government Officials

No Alternative Left the United States But to Intervene in Cuba

WASHINGTON, September 20th.—"If we go to Cuba, we will go with every soldier we've got."

This startling announcement is made on the authority of Brigadier General Bell, Chief of Staff of the Army of the United States.

It means that 40,000 troops will be thrown into the island if intervention cannot be avoided.

All the infantry, field artillery, cavalry and coast artillery to be used as infantry would be used to subdue the Cubans. The infantry would be used as mounted troops.

Orders which are responsible for the foregoing declaration came direct from President Roosevelt today. He has commanded that the entire Army be in readiness for active service.

No time is to be lost. It will require seven days, as it is, before the troops that are in readiness can be embarked, the delay being due to the lack of transports.

By order of President Roosevelt the transport Sumner, in New York harbor, was today put in commission.

This ship can carry 1,500 men.

Until the arrival of soldiers the Navy will be expected to do whatever work is to be done in Cuba.

HAVANA, September 20th.—Cuba today is practically without a Government, and the landing of American forces to restore order in the island is believed to be the necessary outcome.

The Moderate, or governing party, last night decided to abdicate everything in the nature of National, provincial and municipal Government, and thus force the hands of the American Peace Commissioners and compel the United States to intervene for the second time in Cuba.

It is probable that Major General Fred D. Grant will be placed in command of the Army in Cuba when business begins.

THEIR ANNUAL MEETING I

Reunion of Tenth and Sixteenth Kentucky in This City

How the Grim Reaper is Reducing the Ranks of Old Soldiers

The Sixteenth Annual Reunion of the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry and Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry was held in the Courthouse this city yesterday.

C. C. Degman called the meeting to order and introduced the presiding officer, Major M. C. Hutchins, who welcomed the old comrades in a twenty minutes patriotic address, and in response Major A. T. Wood of Louisville gave a talk that went right home to the hearts of the old Veterans present.

Chaplain Thomas J. Wood invoked a divine blessing on the exercise of the meeting.

Assistant Treasurer-Secretary A. M. January read the minutes of last meeting, which were approved and ordered spread upon the records. Treasurer C. C. Degman read a financial statement covering the past year, which showed a balance on hand of $2.65.

Communications and letters from absent Comrades were read and made part of the record. Adjourned for dinner.

The afternoon session was assembled by Comrade William Luman beating the longroll on a drum he had carried during the War.

The usual custom of the entire body arising to its feet and with bowed heads repeating a solemn and impressive feature.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year—

President—Colonel Henry C. Metcalfe, Bracken county.

Vice-President—Thomas A. Jones, Rushville, Ind.

Chaplain—Thomas J. Wood, Nepton.

Historian—W. W. Lynch, Maysville.

Treasurer-Secretary—C. C. Degman, Springdale.

Assistant Treasurer-Secretary—A. M. January, Maysville.

The newly elected President was instructed to appoint a Transportation Committee, with himself as Chairman.

A collection amounting to $14.50 was taken up.

Short and interesting speeches of a reminiscence character by Comrades Thomas A. Jones, Major M. C. Hutchins, Major A. T. Wood, C. C. Degman, Chaplain Thomas J. Wood, Colonel R. R. Maltby, Edward Bell, W. T. Kirk of Plain View, Neb., J. R. Evans, A. S. Cole of Pearis, and many others, all of which were highly entertaining.

The following Comrades were reported as having died since last meeting—

Tenth—John M. Ball, Company I; James

Grigsby; W. B. Dodson, Company I; John Campbell; George W. Garrett, Company G; H. H. Henny, Company I; Jefferson Worstell, Company D; L. S. Beckett, Company D; J. L. Luman, Company G.

Sixteenth—George M. Clinger, Company E; George N. Crawford, Company I; Charles Overley, Company H; T. W. Cooper, Company H; S. T. Cooper, Company H; Jacob Mayfield; Lieutenant H. L. Gillis, Company F; Charles M. Pumpelly, Company A.

Fitting words extolling the virtues and soldierly qualities of those who have joined the silent majority were spoken by a number of Comrades.

There being no other business the meeting adjourned to meet again in this city the fourth Wednesday in September, 1907.

Those who registered were—

NOTES.

W. T. Kirk, whose home is 150 miles North of Omaha, Neb., came all the way to be at the reunion.

J. R. Evans and wife of Carter county drove through in a buggy, being three days on the journey, just for the sake of shaking hands with his old Comrades in arms.

A Committee of Arrangements for next year was overlooked.

Inasmuch as the members of Joe Holser Post furnished the flags and prepared the Courthouse for the meeting a vote of thanks would not have been out of order.

Nearly every fellow is present on dress parade, but there is considerable shirking when it comes to shoveling dirt.

Our Washington Letter

Gossip From the Nation's Busy
Capital

Special Correspondence Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sep. 18th, 1906.
The official residences of Colonel Hawkins, Governor of the Home, and all the other officials, are very sumptuous buildings, elegant in all their appointments inside and out.

There is a large building used for a theater seating 800 persons, and there are G. A. R. halls galore where the old boys meet, smoke and talk and have a good time. There is no post barroom or canteen on the grounds, and no drinking of intoxicating liquors is permitted. For being drunk an inmate is put to work cleaning up the grounds; for a repetition of the offense or chronic jag he is fired from the Home never more to return—he is barred from Paradise, as it were.

A splendid band of 24 pieces gives a concert every afternoon on week days in the stand on the plaza and a string orchestra plays in the theater.

There is an imposing and elegant new Administration Building, perfect in all its appointments, with white marble baths, toilet and lavatories, with mirrors, snowy towels and Pears's soap.

In the heart of the dense woods is a lovely little gem of a Church or Chapel, used alternately by all denominations. It is very complete and beautiful inside and out, with fine organ, stained art windows, electric lights, fans and upholstered seats. Above the altar is the inscription,

"Righteousness Exalteth a Nation."

There is an ornate white granite water tower in the center of the grounds, and it has its own electric light plant, heat and water-works.

There is now under construction at the Home an edifice which is to be the main building. It is simply immense, will cost over a million dollars and is to be one of the largest structures in the District.

The most unique and picturesque building on the grounds is the Japanese Building, occupied as the Library and Postoffice. It was erected by Japan at the Philadelphia Centennial in 1876. It is typically Japanese in and out, of brick, wood and slate, with ornate interior, wood furniture and carvings. The building was given to the United States by the Mikado of Japan, and was removed to the Soldiers' Home in 1877. There are 7,000 volumes of the choicest literature in the Library in English, French and German, and it affords a cozy retreat for the literati among the inmates.

There is a large, modern and well-equipped hospital and dispensary with a score of trained female nurses. The hospital, as a matter of course, is filled at all times by a hundred or more of worn-out and disabled veterans. Among the 1,200 inmates of the Home the death rate is about two a week. This shows how rapidly they are being mastered out of life's service forever.

During these balmy September days scattered on seats all over the grounds and in the deep woods may be seen hundreds of old soldiers, some cheerful, smoking and laughing, but many of them sitting alone seemingly wrapped in memories of the past or morbidly pondering over their real or imaginary troubles and afflictions, mental or physical. They appear wretchedly unhappy and sit alone, many of them with face buried in their hands.

How sad to contemplate such a scene! Each old lonely, suffering soldier represents a living human tragedy. Who can fathom or understand the misery of his mind? Who can interpret or point in words the deep pathos of a diseased veteran, probably abandoned by wife or children, and far from home and loved ones, dying like an outcast and quickly forgotten?

Every few weeks a pistol shot is heard in the woods; another case of self destruction; one more unfortunate gone to his rest. Brief funeral services in the little Chapel, a march of a hundred yards to the Cemetery, an open grave, "Tape," a sainte, another little white marker in the crowded Republic of the Dead; and thus endeth another unrecorded tragedy.

The Soldiers' Home Cemetery is a sight within itself. It is kept like a beautiful bluegrass wooded lawn, whose towering trees mingle their green waving branches with the Stars and Stripes fluttering from the tall flagstaff. Myriads of squirrels skip over the tombstones or bound from tree to tree unmolested and perfectly tame.

Here lie at rest 7,000 veterans of the Union Army.

In a large and splendid granite chapel, or mausoleum, repose the remains of General John A. Logan. The sarcophagus is of cedar and mahogany, very strong and massive, and rests in the center of the tomb. The wide doors stand open, exposing to view the bier of the great fighter. The interior of the tomb and its walls are literally covered with scores of massive floral tributes, more profuse than we ever saw before. A smaller cedar sarcophagus contains the body of his son, Lieutenant John A. Logan, Jr., who also passed away in the service of his country.

Lining the drives is Colonel Theodore O'Hara's poem in raised white letters on metal tablets—"On Fame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread. And Glory guards with solemn round The bivouac of the dead."

The veteran whom we mentioned was very courteous to us, showed us around and cheerfully gave us the above information, or much of it.

He is over seventy years old, is still hale and hearty and has been an inmate of the Home for the past thirteen years. He served thirteen years in the U. S. Navy prior to the Civil War, and was in the Army for twelve years, serving all through the rebellion and aided in the defense of Washington. During all his years of service he was never wounded and was never even in an engagement of any kind. While in the Navy he went around the world several times and was a member of the crew on the historic Merrimack when that craft was abandoned and dismantled at Norfolk. The Confederates then took possession of the Merrimack, covered her with railroad iron, menaced the entire Atlantic coast with her, and later she engaged the Monitor, the first iron-clad warship, in that memorable engagement.

This cheerful old comrade said he was married and had several married children, and hinted that he was in the Home as were hundreds of others—because their wives or children, or other relatives, got tired of keeping them.

Just then the Sunday evening services (Episcopal) began in the Chapel and we requested the veteran to accompany us to the Church. He laughed, and said:

"I will go over with you, but I won't go in. I have been an inmate of the Home for thirteen years and I have got my first time yet to attend religious services in this Church. I am a religious man, too, and a good Catholic, but if I was to be seen going to Church, many of my comrades would give me the merry ha, ha, and laugh me out of the grounds."

He was a good, moral man, too, and strictly temperate; but he was too self-conscious and shy, that was all. As we passed the theater and G. A. R. Hall, a group of jolly old vets were sitting on the portico and one of them was spinning out, much to the satisfaction of the others, a disgustingly vulgar story. Our companion said:

"Come on, I never tolerate such stories, and I try to keep aloof from all those here who seem to be amused listening to these low jokes."

Such was our friend, M—P—, one of nature's gentlemen and a true son of old Ireland. May peace abide with him during his few remaining days.

It is wonderful the strides this city is making along material, art, architecture and educational lines. The tourist ten years hence will view with amazement the transformation and the renaissance of this balmy and beautiful marble city which rests like a white jewel, set, garnished and embowered in living green. DEAF HEARD AGAIN

Astonishing Demonstration Made By Cooper in St. Louis

St. Louis, September 26th, 1906. On Wednesday afternoon some remarkable demonstrations were given in public by T. L. Cooper, or the "Great Cooper," as he is called, who is introducing for the first time in St. Louis the preparations which created a sensation in Eastern cities. The demonstrations took place at Mr. Cooper's headquarters and were witnessed by several hundred people. As nearly as could be learned the facts were these: At three o'clock in the afternoon the young man agreed to show what one of his remedies would do for deafness, and agreed to make any one present who was afflicted with deafness hear again in less than three minutes. There were many deaf people present and about a dozen of these were given the demonstration, consisting of a single application of one of the Cooper preparations. The hearing of these people was then tested after an interval of between two and three minutes. The test consisted of questions put to them in an ordinary conversational tone at distances varying from five to thirty feet. The results were remarkable in the extreme. Some of these people who were treated had been deaf for a number of years. When the first question was asked a look of amazement would spread over their faces and they would forget to answer the question. As the questions were repeated the surprised look would give way to one of delight. Many were so affected that they burst into tears and were scarcely able to answer the question. In no single instance, so far as could be learned, would an individual fail to hear. Many were able to hear a finger snap at a distance of thirty feet. At the request of Mr. Cooper questions were put to them by their friends or by various spectators in an ordinary tone of voice and the questions were readily answered. In giving an account of these demonstrations, Mr. Cooper said: "The preparation used is not the one with which I accomplish most, as my New Discovery, as it is called, and to which I owe my success, is for the treatment of all forms of stomach trouble and the general breaking down of the system that follows in the wake of diseases of this character. "The stomach is the seat of a great many troubles; for instance, my remedy will relieve thousands of people of rheumatism in this city, simply by getting the stomach in working order." Many people who were present at this demonstration assert positively that Cooper undoubtedly made these deaf people hear again.

SEED TIME!

An important period in farm life. Every precaution should be taken to provide an abundant increase at HARVEST TIME!

Owing to the peculiar seeding device upon the Champion Drill, a patented feature, we are firmly convinced that wheat sowed by this Drill will produce a more abundant yield than any other seeding device.

Our Opinion is Based Upon Experience Covering a period of 8 years with this Drill.

Surely We Cannot Be Mistaken!

At any rate your duty is to take every possible precaution in seeding. You owe it to yourself to take an hour off and examine this patent Drill. The principle is so plain that any one can readily see into it.

COME, INVESTIGATE THIS WONDERFUL MACHINE.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Maysville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore

Danger signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine full of sediment and irregular of passage. Danger signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Maysville proof—James D. Tolle, Clerk at Wood Bros' meat market and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says: "I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened, and passages of the secretions were too frequent, and there was a scalding, burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them, and finding great benefit, continued the treatment until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills, and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."
